

Policy on Commercial Presentations

It shall be the policy that commercial presentations for the sale of specific goods or services will not be allowed at Member meetings nor through the group email system. This includes both members and non-members. However, this shall not preclude Members from promoting their business events at meetings and on the Happenings page of the WEB site.